

May arrives like a breath of fresh air, draping the world in color and warmth. Gardens explode with blossoms, trees shimmer with new leaves, and the air carries the sweet scent of possibility. It's a month made for wandering—through parks, festivals, and sunlit afternoons—when every breeze feels like an invitation to pause and enjoy the moment. With celebrations like Mother's Day and Memorial Day, May strikes a perfect balance between joy, reflection, and the simple magic of being outdoors.

On May 7th at 6 pm, Kristine's will be hosting a fundraiser event in collaboration with The Blue Bear, a unique Non-Profit French Cafe on a mission to break down social barriers by providing meaningful employment opportunities for persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The event includes Wine Pairing, 5 courses, including a dessert buffet. The proceeds of this will benefit the Blue Bear Special Meals French Café of Princeton.

The Blue Bear is also proud to be the first featured interview with RLG for the Hearts in Action project, an initiative running through 2025–26 to highlight organizations making a positive impact in their communities.

The Azalea Festival at Sayen Gardens will take place on Saturday, May 10th, 2025, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Guests can stroll through Sayen Botanical Gardens and admire over 250,000 blooming bulbs, dogwoods, azaleas, and rhododendron along beautifully landscaped paths. The event offers family-friendly fun with craft and food vendors, live music, and children's activities. Mothers can receive free family portraits inside Sayen House, courtesy of Group Ventures Unlimited LLC, (available while supplies last). The rain date is set for May 11.

On Saturday, May 10th, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. EDT, volunteers are invited to join Save Coastal Wildlife, a nonprofit organization, in restoring and cleaning up the bayside and ocean beaches near Parking Lot B at Plum Island, Sandy Hook. This important effort supports nesting and feeding birds by removing harmful plastic debris and trash along the northern Jersey Shore. The event takes place at South Beach in the Gateway National Recreation Area. More volunteers mean a greater impact in protecting coastal wildlife and preserving the shoreline ecosystem.

The Doggy Casting Call event invites pet owners to bring their pups for a chance to be featured on the cover of City Lifestyle magazines in Bridgewater and The Somerset Hills. Held on Thursday, May 15th, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. EDT at K9 Resorts Luxury Pet Hotel in Hillsborough, the event is a fun opportunity for dogs to show off their charm and personality. Canine contestants will mingle, strut their stuff, and enjoy a paw-some time among fellow furry stars. It's a lighthearted celebration of dogs and their irresistible charisma.

Mill Creek Park will host a special event on Sunday, May 18th, from 1 to 4 p.m. EDT to celebrate the achievements of women in sports. Attendees will hear from top female athletes, coaches, and industry leaders through inspiring panels, interactive workshops, and networking opportunities. Designed to empower and connect, the event welcomes sports fans, athletes, and anyone interested in the powerful stories and accomplishments of women in the world of sports.

The Collingswood May Fair returns on May 24th, bringing springtime charm to the Delaware River region. Held along Haddon Avenue, this annual event showcases over 200 artists and crafters, a lively KidZone, and multistage live music performances. Visitors can also enjoy an antique and classic car show, delicious offerings from food courts and local restaurants, and fresh goods from the Collingswood Farmers Market. It's a vibrant celebration that offers something for everyone.

The Tour of Somerville returns to Downtown Somerville on May 26th, bringing excitement to the Central Jersey region. As America's longest-running bike race, the event offers thrilling action for both participants and spectators, including a Family Fun Ride. Visitors can enjoy the vibrant atmosphere, with local restaurants and shops open along the course for the Memorial Day holiday. Whether racing or just cheering from the sidelines, it's a day of fun for everyone.
